Executive Summary

The self-improvement skill captures learnings, errors, and feature requests in markdown files for continuous improvement. It poses minimal risk as it primarily involves logging and organizing information locally, with no direct command execution or data exfiltration.

Skill Purpose

The skill is designed to enhance the agent's performance by capturing and reviewing learnings, errors, and feature requests. While it involves file operations, these are limited to safe, local markdown files and do not pose significant security risks.

CVSS v3.1 Base Metrics

Impact Score0.0 / 10

No Vulnerabilities Found

This skill file passed all 12 security checks with no vulnerabilities detected.

Safe Practices Observed

- Logging to local markdown files
- No command execution
- No data exfiltration

Remediation Priority

1. None required as the skill is already secure.
